You can go ahead and eat first, Chii-chan.
He likes running around everywhere.
I'll be in my room.

Tonight we have a Salty Dog.

I WONDER IF SOMEONE'S TEARS GOT INTO IT.
IT TASTES LIKE GRAPEFRUIT, BUT WITH A BIT OF SALTINESS.
It's the English way of making it, Kuro!
Rimming a bit of salt in

Alright, alright. This is bliss. This is so amazing.

You spent all your time with the dog and didn't even look at me!
I'm the only one

Memo

This classic cocktail was born more than half a century ago. The term "salty dog" refers to a deck hand and it was named for the way the the deck hands would become covered in salt as they worked. It doesn't have anything to do with actual dogs. However, without the salt, the drink is called a "bull-dog"... So there really might be something to do with dogs...
